

ONE Ambassador Role Description

Application deadline: End of Tuesday, 7th January 2025

Location: Online and offline in the UK. We only accept applicants living in the UK for the duration of the programme.

Start date: February 2025

Compensation: Voluntary role with reasonable expenses paid when taking part in ONE activities

Time commitment: 3-4 hours per week

Age requirement: 18 -35 year olds

About this role

ONE has a network of Global Activists – in Africa, Europe and North America – fighting for a more just world, demanding the investments needed to create economic opportunities and healthier lives in Africa. In the UK, the ONE Ambassador Programme is a 2-year volunteer programme and we're looking for new activists to join us for 2025/26.

As an ONE Ambassador, you would be joining a group of 40 UK Ambassadors, working with 300 Ambassadors from across Europe and thousands more activists from around the world. You will advocate for, represent and feed into ONE's campaigns. You will get a chance to campaign and engage your political representatives on a variety of issues, such as global health, the climate crisis, global financial justice, shifting the narrative of Africa and much more.

Each Ambassador will receive training, access to high-profile events, in-depth policy briefings, as well as dedicated support from ONE's expert team. They will carry out a variety of campaigns and advocacy actions and will be expected to attend events both online and offline. This role is a great opportunity for anyone who wants to build their skills in campaigning and advocacy and to get some international development experience.

If you believe that “none of us are equal until all of us are equal”, and you envision a world where people across Africa have access to abundant economic opportunities and lead thriving healthy lives, then join us to build a more just world!

Typical tasks:

ONE Ambassadors will take a range of campaign activities and represent ONE at events and in their community, as well as receiving the tools and support needed to develop their own activities.

They will be expected to take a range of actions, including but not limited to:

- Joining online and in-person meetings with decision-makers

- Attending online and offline events including trainings, parliamentary action days and fortnightly or monthly group calls
- Using social media to raise awareness and inspire change
- Coordinating and delivering local events
- Writing letters to newspapers and possibly appearing on the radio or TV
- Encouraging your communities and the broader UK public to take online and in-person campaign actions
- Attending Residentials/Retreats

What we are looking for:

- A passion for ONE's campaigns and our mission to create a more just world, demanding the investments needed to create economic opportunities and healthier lives in Africa.
- Excitement to carry out creative and impactful community actions in support of ONE's campaigning work
- Attendance at a programme induction and training in end of Jan/February
- Willingness to attend fortnightly/monthly meetings (online and/or offline)
- Interest to develop communication and teamwork skills
- Ability to build and maintain relationships
- Willingness to learn how to encourage and support others to take part in ONE campaigns

What we offer:

- Being part of a group of 40 UK ONE Ambassadors and a ONE Global Activists network of over 1,000 people across Europe, Africa and the US
- A written confirmation of service and certificate on completion of the programme, job references (can be put on your CV)
- Training and opportunities to develop skills and knowledge in campaigning, advocacy, UK politics, Global health & financing International development, media, social media and policy
- Opportunity to represent ONE at events, conferences and trainings
- Opportunities to engage with UK decision-makers
- Reimbursement of reasonable expenses when representing ONE and taking part in ONE organised activities

Application process:

Please submit your application on our website by the end of Tuesday, 7th January 2025. We will be in touch soon after to let you know if you've been selected for an online interview. Please note that interviews will happen throughout January 2025.

ONE does not discriminate in its selection and volunteer practices. We are an equal opportunity employer and all volunteer applicants will receive consideration to join our ONE Ambassador programme, African Diasporans are urged to apply.
